

4.8 Lingmoor Fell 8

Images from the walk to the waymarker tree.

The waymarker yew seen from the laneway to Dale End farm.

From the first gateway off the lane, the yew appears on the slope and grows in stature with the opening views to Wetherlam and its attendant fells.

Looking over the yew standing above Dale End farm, with the Three Shires Inn beyond, Little Langdale Tarn to the right and distant Moss Rigg Quarry.
