

3.20 Walla Crag 4

Image from the walk to the waymarker tree.

Wander through this quiet woodland, with only birdsong and the falling water of the gill as company. Notice the variations in crown habit, bark pattern and leaf shape amongst the trees – an indication of natural hybridisation between silver and downy birch.