

5.11 Ullock Pike 5

Images from the walk to the waymarker tree.

The hawthorns rise across the lower intake – with the old drove road meandering ahead to the low brow of Watches, leading up to the ridgeline of The Edge and the distant soaring peak of Ullock Pike.

Bountiful hawthorn – the commonest of fell trees, yet an important provider in the environment.